“It is most important for the future of golf in this country that every aid should be given to the building and upkeep of Municipal courses, because such will eventually become the greatest value to the game, and from them we may expect to produce many of our future great players.”
GEORGE THOMAS

The Wanaki 18 Hole Ladies League, established in 1976, has been a very strong golf and social club for area members who value good competition and entertaining events throughout the season. The league offers many golf opportunities and competitive formats for ladies of all ages and abilities.

The league offers competition in 4 flights, and weekly events that offer opportunities to win prizes weekly, monthly, and yearly.

The “Evie Lant Memorial” Most-Improved player is awarded annually

Club Championship matches are offered in 2 Divisions, using a handicapped match-play format.

Metro Women’s Public Links Golf Association

Wanaki Golf Course is one of 6 area golf courses to host a team within this traveling competition
